

Statement of Compliance with Regulation (EU) 2023/988 on General Product Safety

To whom it may concern,

The Imago Group confirms that all raw materials used in the production of ordinary books and other printed materials are safe for the market and are in compliance with Regulation (EU) 2023/988 on General Product Safety.

Specifically, our products do not contain any of the Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) above the specified concentrations, as defined in Article 57 and Annex XIV of the European Union's REACH Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006.

The Imago Group have an annual raw material testing programme and we ensure that the latest changes to safety legislation are incorporated in our annual assessments.

If any of the books / other printed materials that we produce have play value and carry the CE mark, or have other specific features then these are assessed separately under the relevant regulations as applicable.
